Farmingville, NY - On May 12, Supervisor Ed Romaine visited with Mrs. Munson's 4th grade class at Terry Road Elementary School in Terryville to speak with the students about local government. The Supervisor explained why federal, state and local governments are needed and he talked about the responsibilities of the different levels. He also discussed how government works in Brookhaven Town departments, what they do and some interesting facts about the town's population and geography.
